

Thank you my Dear Friends,

The investment of your time into the Prayer Focus for me last weekend will, I'm sure yield precious fruit in the weeks to come.

I do appreciate how many of you did sign-up to pray and the fact that you did was so humbling and such a blessing.

The Lord has heard your prayers – the answers have and will come in His way and in His time.

I hope you met with the Lord as deeply as I did as you prayed for me.

Thank you for your encouragements and Words from the Lord too....each is a precious Treasure!

God Bless You all

With love - a Hug
Sandra
