Welcome
5th November 2017

Welcome to our morning worship service. This morning Pastor Paul will lead us in worship and will be bringing to us a message entitled Dear Friends; Be Sharp. Our main bible reading today will be 1 John 4, verses 1-6

As part of our morning service we will be celebrating the baptism of Thomas Rees. Therefore our young people aged 11+ will remain in the worship area for the full service and all our younger children will be returning towards the end of the service to be part of this. If you are a visitor here today please make yourself known as we would like to welcome you.

Tea, coffee and cakes will be served in Hall 1 after the service today, please stay for a drink and a chat. Parents are reminded to supervise their children during this time.

This evening we meet here at 6.30pm for a time of worship, prayer and communion.

Next Sunday we meet at 10.30am for our morning service on Remembrance Sunday.

Christmas Crafts

Continue this Wednesday 12.15-2pm. Come to chat, create something unique and save money by making your Christmas gifts, cards and decorations in our foyer.

Women's Day

The 2017 Women's Day Conference, "WELL WOMAN?", will be taking place at New Life Baptist Church, Northallerton, on Saturday 18th November. The guest speaker will be Ruth Rice, Baptist minister and Director of Renew Wellbeing, a new charity working with Cinnamon Network to help churches set up well-being cafes in response to the major emotional and mental health needs of our nation. Tickets cost £10 including lunch.

Scripture Union 95 Event – November 15th 7pm All Saints Church, Lobley Hill

The 95 Campaign is all about gathering, equipping and encouraging those with a heart for the 95% of children and young people not regularly in church. This event aims to equip you to do that. Whether you are just beginning to make connections in local schools and communities or you want to build on your existing work – there will be practical ideas and resources to help us all to be more effective. Tickets are available through Eventbrite.

Lost Property

A variety of items that have been left around the church will be displayed in Hall 1 after the service today. Please take a look when you are getting your drink and claim anything that is yours. Unclaimed items will be passed on or disposed of.

Safe Families Bake Off

If you are planning an entry for the Bake Off this coming Saturday 11th November please remember to let Hannah Rowan know. If you would like to join in the eating please come along at 2pm on Saturday, tickets are £5 adults/£3 children with all proceeds to Safe Families, entry includes 5 tasting tokens.

Streets for People

Newcastle City Council would like to know what you think about their ideas for improving the streets of Arthurs Hill and Fenham. Information leaflets are available in the foyer or go on line to www.streetsforpeople.org.uk

Would you like to be prayed for? Please share your prayer needs through the prayer request slips located at the front of the stage, by talking to one of our leadership team or via email. We are seeing prayers answered.
